Career Day at FHWien der WKW Connects Top Companies with Future Employees

On April 5, companies will present themselves as employers for students and graduates. The recruiting fair also offers career tips and information on Master's degree programs.

Vienna, March 22, 2019 - From the degree program directly into the first job: University graduates and students have the prospect of this on Friday, April 5, 2019, at the Career Day with Master Lounge at FHWien der WKW. More than 20 renowned companies from a wide variety of industries will present themselves to visitors as potential employers – including DO & CO, HEROLD and Paysafe.

Offers for entry-level positions, internships and trainee programs

The companies use the recruiting fair of FHWien der WKW, the university of applied sciences with a focus on management & communication, to fill vacancies as well as to network with up-and-coming talents. Especially in the areas of financing, controlling, tax consulting, marketing, sales, HR, communication, journalism, tourism and real estate management, students and alumni will find many offers for entry-level positions, internships and trainee programs at the Career Day.

Expert tips on salaries, CVs and the use of social media when looking for a job

The supporting program of the Career Day is also noteworthy: Top keynote speakers provide useful career tips e. g. on what companies expect from entry-level employees and how to optimally prepare for salary negotiations. There will also be advice on CVs, telephone interviews and the use of social media channels when looking for a job. Among the speakers are salary expert Conrad Pramböck, HR professional Carolin Kellermayr of Paysafe as well as Pedram Parsaian, entrepreneur, marketing and sales expert and graduate of FHWien der WKW, who will speak about self motivation.

The Master Lounge offers advice on extra-occupational studies

At the Career Day, FHWien der WKW will also provide advice on Master's degree programs and continuing education programs in the Master Lounge. There, employees of FHWien der WKW will be available for personal talks and answer questions from those interested in continuing education.
