Career Day at FHWien der WKW Connected Top Companies with Students and Alumni

Renowned companies presented themselves as employers at the career fair. Visitors were also provided with career tips from experts and information on master studies.

Vienna, April 17, 2019 - On April 5, 2019, everything at FHWien der WKW was about careers. 24 top companies went on a talent search and presented themselves at the career fair at FHWien der WKW, the university of applied sciences specialized in management & communication. The Career Day offered students and graduates the opportunity to inform themselves about jobs, internships and trainee programs and to get to know the companies.

Tips for the perfect CV and application photo shooting

The Career Day offered everything one needs for a professional career. The CV check by XING and epunkt provided tips on how to optimize one's CV. Professional photographers put the visitors in the right light and took application photos of them. For all those who would like to combine work and continuing education, the employees at FHWien der WKW offered information on the Master's degree programs and continuing education programs at FHWien der WKW in the Master Lounge.

Career experts talked about salary negotiations and the use of social media to find a job

In presentations by career experts, Career Day visitors learned, among other things, how they can prepare for salary negotiations, what needs to be taken into account in telephone interviews and the importance of social media when looking for a job. With his caricatures, the fast-drawing artist Xi Ding provided lasting memorabilia from Career Day 2019 at FHWien der WKW.
